

MR. TRAVIS DEON TARVER was born in Sumter County, Georgia on January 3, 1980, to the parentage of Mr. Larry Tarver and Mrs. Frances Maddox Hubbard. He received his education in the Americus Public School System, where he was a 1998 graduate of Americus High School. At an early age, he joined the Friendship Missionary Baptist Church where he sang in the choir.

Travis was a businessman, who was a very knowledgeable and talented car salesman. He was a top-notch detailer, a great cook and one who was very entertaining and bound to put a smile on our faces wherever he was present. Lovingly known as Deon, he will be deeply missed.

Early Thursday morning, January 30, 2025, he slipped away to be with other family members, that would include his grandparents: Booker T. and Catherine Maddox, Martha Tarver, and James Frederick.

Left to carry on his legacy are three beautiful daughters: Tamia Tarver, Giselle Tarver, and Javanna Kleinschmidt. In addition to his daughters, left to cherish his memories are his mother, Frances (Kenneth) Hubbard; his father, Larry Tarver and friend, EvaNell Lockhart; his sisters: DeAngela Tarver Tullis and LaTwinthia (Bobby) Hinton; his brother, Latrell Tarver; his devoted fiancé, Andriella Jackson; his aunts and uncles: Sarah Carson, Andrew (Catherine) Maddox, Jackie Maddox, Bethena Jackson, Neva (Milton) Calloway, Anthony (LaKisha) Volley, Lamar Tarver, Jacquelyn Bridges, Curtis (Cathy) Tarver, Ella (Thomas) Wakefield, Jr., Jane Zene (Nathaniel) Dunn, Tami Walker and fiancé, Derrick Andrews, Michael (Teresa) Cunningham, Donald (Nanette) Cunningham, Angela Bateman, Celena Watson and a host of others, including, his first cousins reared as “brothers and sisters”: Cathy, Tammy, Antonio, Sharon, Mona, Lanae, Kenneth, Chelsea, Keenyada, Taliaferro, Kelvin, Telicia, Tony and Jamie; his nieces and nephews: Tailyn, Laila, Jaykierria, Winfred, III and Lauren; devoted friends and co-parents, Sha’Keerah (Eric) Windham; and a host of cousins, friends, and classmates also survive.
