

*A light from our household is gone.
The voice we love is still.
A place is vacant in our home
that can never be filled.
We cannot tell who next may fall
beneath the chosen rod.
One must be first, so let us all prepare to meet our God.*

The advertisement for Albert Monts features a large, vertical portrait of the deceased on the right side. He is an older man with short grey hair, wearing a dark blue and white checkered button-down shirt and light-colored trousers. The background of the entire advertisement is a sunset over water, with a large white dove in flight on the right side. At the top, the text reads 'A COMING CELEBRATION' in a large, elegant script font, followed by 'FOR OUR BELOVED' in a smaller, sans-serif font. Below this, the name 'ALBERT MONTS' is written in large, bold, white capital letters. Underneath the name, the dates 'Sunrise: August 29, 1953' and 'Sunset: April 5, 2020' are listed. At the bottom right, a yellow banner contains the text: 'Let not your heart be troubled, for God is always near. Call upon Him in the day of trouble and our Lord will always hear.'

Obituary

On April 5, 2020, ALBERT MONTS, age 66, surrendered weary and burdened, and the Lord gave him rest. He was the son of the late A. J. Thomas and the late Lucille Monts. He lived his life without parameters and appreciated the gentle breeze of peace amid life challenges.

He joined Bethlehem Baptist Church at an early age. He attended and held a variety of jobs throughout his life. The one passion he claimed to be an expert was playing pool. He gloated: "there is no one better than me." He could be a gentle giant or a formidable force to reckon with for those who knew him.

He was the baby boy of twelve siblings. He is preceded in death by his siblings: McArthur Monts, George Frank Monts, Sr., Margaret Perpall, Elizabeth Terry, and Marvin Monts.

He was blessed with one son, Calvin Daniels of Americus, GA and nine grandchildren: Quincy Daniels, Tkhia Daniels, Aquavion Daniels, Jaqavious Daniels, Kamarrious Daniels, Ka'tavious Daniels, Calvin Battle, Dakarien Daniels, and K'marie Johnson; one great grand, Hailen Daniels. He is also survived by his bothers: John (Ida Mae) Monts, Plains, GA; David Monts and Williams Monts, both of Smithville, GA and Elder Ed (Juanita) Ross, Plains, GA; sisters: Anna Edwards, Earnestine Jackson, both of Smithville, GA; Mary Jackson, Edna Jones, and cousin, Eddie R. Walker, all of Americus, GA; his extraordinary niece, Sabrina L. Edwards, who gave unselfishly to make moments in his life more meaningful and satisfying; his nephew, John Keith Monts, who would step in and assist in his care, needs, and wants. In addition, he leaves two loving and kind great nieces, Alashia Sims and Shanbricia Jackson-Floyd and a host of other nieces, nephews and friends also survive.
