

To Our Father

We miss your smile,
your gentle face
and all the things you did with grace.
We miss the love from your big heart
and all the joys you did impart.
Each day we fold our hands in prayer
and hope that you are happy there,
where all is peaceful and serene and where you reign as Heavenly King.

Well done, good and faithful servant.

Jesus promised us they who mourned would be comforting. During our hours of bereavement this promise has been fulfilled by you, our kind and loving “friends and neighbors”. Celebrating THE LIFE & MEMORY

Mr. Dock Harrell was born on January 14, 1938, in Abbeville, Wilcox County, Georgia, to the late Mr. Alex Harrell and the late Mrs. Nettie Jones Harrell. Dock's journey was one marked by love, resilience, and faith.

He was preceded in death by his devoted wife, Mrs. Minnie B. Harrell, whom he met by chance while she was working at a laundromat during his employment with West Palm Beach Sanitation. That serendipitous encounter blossomed into a loving marriage and a partnership anchored in mutual respect and enduring affection. Together, they established their home in Miami, Florida, and built a life rich in family and community.

In the 1970s, Dock embraced the calling of an over-the-road truck driver, dedicating decades to the road until his retirement in 2003. His work ethic was matched only by his desire for tranquility a dream he fulfilled in 1996 when he had a home built in Americus, Georgia. Dock's faith deepened over the years, and in December 2000, he was baptized at New Shady Grove Baptist Church, finding comfort and purpose within its walls.

On Friday, November 14, 2025, Dock peacefully transitioned to eternal rest, answering God's call with grace.

In addition to his parents and beloved wife, Mr. Harrell was preceded in death by his son, Anthony Levon Harrell, and his siblings: Frank Harrell, Alex Harrell, Jr., Edna Mae Harrell, Mattie Lee McCormick, and Frances Thomas.

His legacy lives on in his memory six loving children: Ms. Yolanda Brinson (Richard) of West Palm Beach, FL; Ms. Cynthia Harrell Vaughn of Palm Bay, FL; Mr. Ricardo Nathaniel Harrell (Adrienne) of West Palm Beach, FL; Mrs. Natasha Thomas Webb (Remon) of Canton, GA; and Dominique Shelton (Tasheia) of Americus, GA; his in-laws: Ms. Dianne Matthews, Ms. Lorene Floyd, Ms. Delores (Dennis) Peace, Mrs. Alice (James) Boykin, Ms. Georgia Mae and Mr. Tommy (Lana) Burns).

Dock is lovingly remembered by eighteen grandchildren, twenty-two great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, and a multitude of cherished relatives and friends.

His enduring spirit, compassion, and unwavering commitment to family will forever inspire those privileged to know and love.
