

MRS. ELEANOR FAYE LASITER YANCIE was born on February 28, 1961, in Sumter County, Georgia to the late Mr. Robert Lasiter and the late Mrs. Marie Prince Lasiter. She was a proud 1979 graduate of Americus High School. While there, she played softball. She was employed at Davidson's Manufacturing for over 30 years and until they closed the Americus plant. She went on to work at Lowe's Hardware and CMI Manufacturing. In her final working years, she was employed by Tyson's Chicken Processing Company. She was a hard worker and a great cook.

At an early age, she joined the Friendship Baptist Church, under the leadership of the late Rev. Daniel Thomas.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death just a month ago, by her husband of 38 years, Mr. James Richard Yancie, Jr. Their home was a home to "many".

She leaves cherished memories with her son, Mekall Yancie and his friend, Zykenzia; her only living brother, Mr. Ray (Sally) Lasiter; her sisters: Mrs. Sheila (Bobby) Angry, Ms. Gwendolyn Lasiter, Ms. Diana Tarver, and Mrs. Roseta (Alvin, Sr.) Bateman; her stepchildren: Krystal Davis, Montaya Davis, LeRay Davis, Kelsey (Juwanna) Yancie, Sr., Gabriel Davis, Naquesha Yancie and Chatley Yancie; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Dorothy Ann Yancie and a brother-in-law and his wife, Mr. Robert Lee (Leather Mae) Lasiter; a host of nephews, including devoted nephews, Gabriel Lasiter and Alvin Dean Bateman, Jr., and a family of friends and coworkers also survive.
