

MR. LEROY HOOKS, JR. was born October 14, 1941, in Americus, Georgia to Mr. Leroy Hooks, Sr. and Mrs. Josephine Mahone Hooks. He departed this life on Sunday, August 25, 2024.

In his early life, he made a living planting and harvesting peanuts, corn, and watermelons; raised pigs to sale at the market; drove semi-trucks and was a mechanic before he retired. He began his Christian journey where he confessed to Christ and became a member of Friendship Missionary Baptist Church of Desoto, Georgia. His love for God didn't end at Friendship Baptist Church. He traveled from church to church in his community receiving and giving the word of God. He will be deeply missed.

He was preceded in death by his father, Leroy Hooks, Sr.; mother, Josephine Mahone Hooks, and sister, Dinah Mahone Henry.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Annie Hooks, Albany, Georgia; a daughter, Mrs. Sandra Brown (Charles) of Desoto, Georgia; two sons: Mr. Jimmy Hooks (Carla), Albany Georgia and Mr. Leroy Hooks III, Albany, Georgia; one brother, Mr. Henry Hooks (Joyce), Albany, Georgia; two sisters: Mrs. Essie Mae Mitchell, Leslie, Georgia and Mrs. Josie Mae Henry, Chicago Illinois; two grandchildren: Charles Barnes of Leander, Texas and Charles Brown of Desoto, Georgia; two great grandchildren: Jaiden and Austin Barnes of Leander, Texas; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and sorrowing friends also survive.
