

Welcome Home

When I am gone, release me, let me.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
but be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess how much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
but now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a while that we must part,
so treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far way, for life goes on and if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me,
I will be near and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home".

We miss your smile, your gentle face,
and all the things you did with grace.
We miss the love from your big heart
and all the joys you did impart.
~ until we meet again, you're forever in our hearts ~

PAUL ANTHONY HARVEY

Remembering His Story

MR. PAUL ANTHONY HARVEY, affectionately called “Ant,” was born in Americus, Sumter County, Georgia on August 30, 1964, to the parentage of the late Mr. Johnny Clifford Harvey and the late Ms. Annie Ruth Sims Harvey. He received his education in Americus, Georgia. He was employed as a highly trained forklift driver at Sheffield Hardware and Shiver Lumber Companies in Americus, Georgia and as a government contract employee in Washington, DC. He lived in the Washington, DC and Virginia areas most of his life before returning to Americus, when his health began to fail him.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his uncles, Charlie Sims and Robert Sims and his aunts: Catherine Poole, Debra Sims, Georgia Mitchell, Mary Jenkins, Francis Sims and Ellen Sims.

He leaves cherished memories to his four brothers: Mr. Eddie Sims, Mr. Johnny Harvey, both of Americus, GA; Mr. Jason Harvey and Mr. Johnathan (Kiara) Harvey, both of Aliquippa, PA; five sisters: Ms. Pat Harvey Jackson, Fulton County, Mrs. Brenda Harvey (Howard) Terry, all of Americus, GA; Mrs. Ella Harvey (Eric) Freeman, North Augusta, SC; Ms. Wiffi Harvey, Plains, GA; and Ms. Tiffany Harvey, Gwinnett County, GA; three uncles: Mr. Bobby Sims, Mr. Harold Sims, both of Americus, GA and Mr. McArthur Sims, Portland, OR; three aunts: Ms. Minnie Sims Davis, Ms. Martha Seay and Ms. Ernestine Rogers, all of Americus, GA; his loving nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends also survive.

God is saying to you today,
“I heard your prayer last night. I saw every tear.
I am holding you through this situation.
Things may look dark and bleak now,
but remember that I have never failed you.”
