

MR. HORACE MUNSON, a beloved father and brother, transitioned on October 16, 2023. He was born in Sumter County, Georgia on May 10, 1963, to the parentage of the late Mr. Joseph Munson and the late Mrs. Christine Ingram Munson. He was the eleventh of twelve children. He was fondly called “The Chef” by his family and friends. At an early age, he attended the Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church. He attended the public schools of Sumter County. Horace was a chef by trade, having cooked at various restaurants in Americus, Atlanta and Augusta, Georgia. His uniqueness in creating a meal was outstanding and one of the best. He loved entertaining and sharing his gift as a chef with his family and friends was a blessing. He was an avid football fan and loved the New England Patriots. Every football game was like the Super Bowl, and he would prepare the best Chef’s meals ever. Horace loved listening to music and dancing.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his siblings: Edward Ingram, Curtis Ingram, Carl Ingram, and Yvonne Thompson.

Left to cherish his memories are his children: Mrs. Kema Mullin-Bass and husband, Patrick of Deltona, FL; Mr. Mercedes Pope and friend, Shay Prince of Atlanta, GA; Mr. Varrick (Jamilah) Carter, Thomasville, GA; Ms. Jandi Pope, Covington, GA and Mrs. Ambbria (Jeffery) Woods, Palmetto, GA; five brothers: Mr. Hollis (Mary) Douglas, Mr. Terrell (Edith) Ingram, all of Americus, GA; Mr. Joe Chris (Karen) Ingram, Inglewood, CA; Mr. Andrew Keith Munson and Mr. Lonnie Munson, both of Conyers, GA; two sisters, Ms. Rita Ingram, Americus, GA and Mrs. Sherrand (Bernard) Manigault, Upper Marlboro, MD; ten grandchildren: Jabari Mullins, Kavier Mullins, Dallas Berry, Natiya Carter, Zariya Carter, Saniya Carter, Imree Swift, Imaree Swift, Amir Parrott and London Perkins and a host of nieces, including two devoted nieces, Mrs. Terri Wooden and Ms. Rani Waymon; nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends also survive.
