

May you come to find comfort in and remember
CARDINALS appear when ANGELS are near.
So go now, sit outside and drink your tea.
Keep a look out for the little RED BIRD.
It's there, your LOVED ONES

Will Be...

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN...FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

OBITUARY

Latressa Shon White was born on October 17, 1970, in Sumter County, Georgia to the parentage of Rosa Leverette White, who survives and the late Willie Lee White.

She received her education in the public schools of Sumter County.

Known affectionately as “Lil Ma” or known by her grandchildren as “Big Thick”, Latressa was known for her big heart and would open her home to anyone. She always had open arms to family and friends. She always allowed them in her home and she never complained about them being there. She always made sure there was food for them and a place to lay their heads. She was a kindhearted, caring, loving, helpful mother, and loved to be around her grandkids.

Latressa departed this life on May 15, 2025. In addition to her father, she is preceded in death by a brother, Edward White and a nephew, Dontell White.

She is survived by her mother, Rosa Leverette White; three children: Randy (Dyvonya) Walker, Shante White and Shanika White; twelve grandchildren; a twin sister, Teressa White and friend, Jerome; a brother, Timothy (Arenetta) White and a devoted friend, David Brown. A host of nieces and nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and many friends who loved her dearly also survive.
