

To everything there is a season
and a time to every purpose under the Heaven.
A time to be born, and a time to die.
A time to plant and a time to pluck up that which is planted.
A time to weep and a time to laugh.
A time to mourn...
A time to cast away stones and a time to gather stones together.
A time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing.
A time to love and a time to hate.
A time of war and a time of peace.
He made everything beautiful in His time.
Also, He hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.
And also that every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good of all His labour.
It is the gift of God I know that whatsoever God doth it shall be forever.
Nothing can be put to it nor anything taken from it and God doth it that men should fear before Him that which hath been is now and that which is already been and God requireth that which is past.

OBITUARY

MR. Horace Munson, a beloved father and brother, transitioned on October 16, 2023. He was born in Sumter County, Georgia on May 10, 1963, to the parentage of the late Mr. Joseph Munson and the late Mrs. Christine Ingram Munson. He was the eleventh of twelve children. He was fondly called “Chef” by his family and friends. At an early age, he attended the Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church. He attended the public schools of Sumter County. Horace was a chef by trade, having cooked at various restaurants in Americus, Atlanta and Augusta, Georgia. His uniqueness in creating a meal was outstanding and one of the best. He loved entertaining and sharing his gift as a chef with his family and friends was a blessing. He was an avid football fan and loved the New England Patriots. Every football game was like the Super Bowl, and he would prepare the best Chef’s meals ever. Horace loved listening to music and dancing.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his siblings: Edward Ingram, Curtis Ingram, Carl Ingram, and Yvonne Thompson.
