

Mr. Glenn Eugene Hoskins was born on December 22, 1954, in Augusta, Richmond County, Georgia, to the late Mr. Ernest Eugene Hoskins and Mrs. Mildred Murray-Hoskins, who survives.

He received his education in the public schools of Elizabeth City, North Carolina, and was a graduate of Elizabeth City High School. Mr. Hoskins proudly served his country in the United States Army, enlisting in 1974 and serving faithfully for 10 years until his honorable discharge in 1983.

Following his military service, Mr. Hoskins obtained his Commercial Driver's License (CDL) and worked as a truck driver for over 30 years. After retiring from over-the-road driving, he continued to serve his community by driving a school bus for the Sumter County Board of Education for three and a half years.

In addition to his son, Marcus Hoskins, he was preceded in death by his father, Ernest Eugene Hoskins. He leaves to cherish his memories his loving wife of 37 years, Mrs. Bernice Hoskins of Americus, Georgia; his mother, Mrs. Mildred Murray-Hoskins of Elizabeth City, North Carolina; two sons, Mr. Eddie Leon (Monique) Tyson and Mr. Gary Fuller, both of Americus, Georgia; and one daughter, Ms. Latrice Fuller of Americus, Georgia.

He also leaves a devoted grandson, Dartaynian Carter of Americus, Georgia; one sister, Cheryl (Ray) Patterson of Elizabeth City, North Carolina; one brother, Mr. Britton (Doris) Hoskins of Elizabeth City, North Carolina; and three sisters-in-law, Ms. Mary Calloway, Ms. Ida Anthony, and Ms. Brenda Lundy, all of Americus, Georgia.

Mr. Hoskins is further survived by twelve grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
