Ms. Nozie Bell Angry was born on February 6, 1963, in Americus, Sumter County, Georgia, to the late Mr. James Clinkscales and Ms. Ozzie Bell Angry, who survives.

She received her education in the public schools of Sumter County.

At an early age, she joined Bethlehem Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend Leonard Boston.

For many years, she was employed as a packer at Fresh Farms Produce.

She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Clora T. Grimes, and other relatives, including Sheryl Arnett, Sam Solomon, Robert Solomon, Willie Solomon, Clark Solomon, Dorothy Morgan, Reverend George Solomon, and Bobby Sims.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory her mother, Ms. Ozzie Bell Angry of Americus, Georgia; her son, Mr. Brandon Lewis of Americus, Georgia; two brothers, Mr. Urban Angry and Mr. Bobby (Shelia) Angry; and one half-sister, Ms. Brenda Tullis, all of Americus, Georgia.

She also leaves her aunts: Mrs. Ruby Lester, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Martin, Mrs. Alma Solomon, Ms. Geraldine Solomon, Ms. Alice Bradley, Ms. Liza White and Ms. Fannie Bradley; her uncles: Mr. Willie Grimes, Mr. Arthur Solomon, Reverend Sam (Brenda) Solomon, Mr. Bernard Solomon, Mr. Sammy Lee Grimes, Mr. Joseph (Dawn) Angry, and Mr. Andrew Clinkscales.

Her memory will also be cherished by her cousins: Christopher D. Walton, Willie L. Walton, Jr., D.J., Thomas (Martha) Hightower, Kenneth Solomon, Jurlene Morgan, Shirlene (Reginald) Williams, Jennie Mae Tullis, Nettie (Kenneth) Hall, Elias Tullis, Claude Tullis, Johnny Lester, Mike Lester, Sam Rufus (Eliza) Lester, Andrew Sims, Earnestine Solomon, Alia Solomon, James Solomon, Abraham Simeon, Johnny Simeon, Ralph Lewis, William Asberry, and Kevlin Griffin; along with a host of other relatives and friends.