Obituary

Henry Lee Dennard, Jr., affectionately known as “Pie”, 54, of Americus, Georgia, entered eternal rest on March 2, 2026, after enduring health challenges until the Lord called him home.

Henry was born on April 30, 1971, in Americus, Georgia, to Mary Jewel Wilder (Jonathan) and the late Henry Lee Dennard, Sr. He was lovingly raised by his late grandmother, Annie B. Dennard, who provided guidance and a nurturing spirit.

Henry was a member of Faith of Deliverance Church in Americus, GA, where he actively served in Sunday School and sang in the choir until his health no longer permitted.

Though his earthly body grew weary, his spirit remained steadfast. His life reflected faith, endurance, and love for his family.

He attended Sumter County High School and loved the University of Alabama, Atlanta Falcons, fishing, cooking, motorcycles, and family.

He had one daughter, Ieisha Hurley (Travis) and was the grandfather to one grandson, Broderick.

He was preceded in death by his father, Henry Lee Dennard, Sr.; his brother, Harrison Dennard; and his grandmother, Annie B. Dennard.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory: his mother, Mary Jewel Wilder (Jonathan) of Atlanta, GA; his devoted sister, Wanda White (John) of Manchester, GA; his wife, Tammy Goolsby-Dennard of Dawson, GA; his daughter, Ieisha Hurley (Travis) of Americus, GA; his grandson, Broderick Perry of Americus, GA; his devoted aunts and uncles: Helen Sims (Wilbur) of Americus, GA; Annie Barthell (Samuel) of Americus, GA; Ruby Dennard of Americus, GA; Shirley Terry (Tom) of Albany, GA; Flora Solomon of Americus, GA; two uncles: Willie Dennard (Francis) of Americus, GA and Jerry Dennard of Atlanta, GA; a mother-in-law, Alene Goolsby of Douglas, GA; a stepdaughter, Tamia Marshall of Dawson, GA; a sister-in-law, Trina Goolsby of Douglas, GA; and a brother-in-law, Tyrone Goolsby of Douglas, GA; a grandson, Remington Scott of Dawson, GA and a host of cousins, including Sharon Jennings, of Atlanta, GA who was raised as a sister.

I AM RESTING NOW “Pie”

Do not worry now for me,
My pain has finally passed.
The struggles that once burdened me
were never meant to last.
The Lord has called my name above,
and gently took my hand.
I now rejoice in perfect peace
within His promised land.
No more sorrow, no more tears,
No more weary days.
I sing with heaven’s choir now
and walk in endless praise.
Please remember I still love you,
as I always did before.
And though you cannot see me now,
I’m at peace forever more.
So hold each other a little closer,
and let your hearts be strong.
For love does not end with goodbye—
It simply carries on

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Henry Lee
