

Mr. Lonnie Streeter was born on October 11, 1946, in Sumter County, Georgia, to the late Mr. Joe Streeter and the late Mrs. Johnnie Mae Ross Streeter. He attended the public schools of Sumter County and later returned to complete his education, earning his GED.

At an early age, Mr. Streeter united with Lebanon Baptist Church and later transferred his membership to Americus Pentecostal Church, where he faithfully served until his health began to decline. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge until the late 1990s and proudly served his community as a volunteer firefighter with the City of Plains.

Mr. Streeter was a certified welder and electrician. He was employed with Metulax, now known as Cooper Lighting, for 38 years before retiring, later returning to work an additional three years. He was also the owner and operator of Streeter Construction.

On July 3, 1966, he was united in Holy Matrimony to Mrs. Mable Muff Streeter. Their loving union of 59 years was blessed with eight children. Affectionately known as “Tim” by family and friends, Mr. Streeter was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and community servant.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Lorna C. Streeter; his siblings: Betty and Willie C. Walton, John “Bob” Streeter, Liza Streeter-Sims, and Ronald Streeter; his grandson, Jeston D. Allen; and his brothers- and sisters-in-law: Elaine Grant, Bernice Scarbrough, Mary Pearl and Arthur Battle, Ozzie Muff, Jr., Roosevelt Muff, and Doris Muff.

He leaves to cherish his memory—his loving and devoted wife of 59 years, Mrs. Mable M. Streeter of Plains, Georgia; his children: Ms. Lisa M. Streeter-Allen of Americus, Georgia; Ms. Sherry M. Streeter, Ms. Gwendolyn E. Mercer, both of Atlanta, Georgia; Ms. Kimberly E. Streeter of Decatur, Georgia; Mrs. Jennifer A. (Dea. Lyn Edward) Greene, all of Leslie, Georgia; Mr. Lonnie Streeter, Jr. of Alabaster, Alabama; and Ms. Jessica M. Streeter of Columbus, Georgia.

Also surviving are his siblings: Mr. Joe (Hazel) Streeter, Jr., Mrs. Eula Streeter and her companion, Mr. David, Mrs. Dorothy Jenkins, all of Americus, Georgia; Mr. Benjamin (Barbara) Streeter of Fayetteville, North Carolina; Mrs. Mandy (Scotty) Monts, Mrs. Beverly (Robert) Redding, Mr. Larry Streeter, Mrs. Linda (Edward) Monts, all of Plains, Georgia; and Ms. Tammy “Kay” Tullis of Covington, Georgia.

Mr. Streeter is further survived by his thirteen grandchildren: Jasmine N. Mercer, Jade A. Williams, both of Plains, Georgia; Jacqueline C. Streeter of Leslie, Georgia; Jamil D. Mercer, Alexandra C. Mercer, Alexeus B. Mercer, Aliyah S. Allen; Jenika A. Fuller, all of Americus, Georgia; Joslyn M. Streeter of Macon, Georgia; Maurice D. Love of Detroit, Michigan; Ashlyn S. McClaster of Warner Robins, Georgia; Lauryn Brown of Columbus, Georgia; and Brandi (Quantavious) Howard of McDonough, Georgia; along with sixteen great-grandchildren.

He also leaves to cherish his memory his brothers- and sisters-in-law: Mr. Leonard (Alice) Muff, Ms. Shirley Waymon, all of Americus, Georgia; Mr. Alvin Muff of Deerfield Beach, Florida; Mrs. Nadine (Walter) McDonald of Savannah, Georgia; Mrs. Emmarene Streeter of Lilburn, Georgia; and Mr. Daniel Grant of Coral Springs, Florida; as well as a host of nieces—including a devoted niece, Ms. Tiajuana (Billy)

Hills—the Battle family, nephews, cousins, neighbors Mr. Curtis and Mrs. Mae Lizzie, Sr., other relatives, and dear friends.

Mr. Lonnie “Tim” Streeter’s life was marked by faith, service, hard work, and love for family and community. His legacy will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
