

Mr. Brenton Jerome Truitt was born on March 14, 1997, in Americus, Sumter County, Georgia, to Mr. Charles Jerome Truitt and Mrs. Floria Hurley Truitt.

Brenton began his education in the Americus City School System before graduating from Monroe Comprehensive High School in Albany, Georgia, in 2015. He continued his academic journey at Point University in West Point, Georgia, before transferring to Georgia Southwestern State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree, graduating on May 7, 2026. His determination and commitment to education reflected his desire to continually grow and prepare for a life of service to others.

At an early age, Brenton joined Mitchell Grove Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. J. W. Lundy. In 2015, he united with Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church in Albany, Georgia, under the leadership of Dr. Daniel Simmons, where he continued to nurture his faith.

Brenton was known for his vibrant personality, infectious smile, and heart for serving others. He found great joy in singing, dancing, coaching football, working with children, and spending time with his family and friends. One of his proudest accomplishments was becoming a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated, where he was initiated into the Delta Delta Delta Chapter at Georgia Southwestern State University in 2024. Brotherhood, scholarship, perseverance, and service were values he embraced and exemplified throughout his life.

On Monday, July 27, 2026, Brenton answered his Master's call and entered into eternal rest.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Mr. John Alton Hurley, Mrs. Mattie Ruth Tyson Hurley, Mr. Clifton Truitt, and Mrs. Virginia Truitt; his aunts, Ms. Catherine Tyson and Ms. Tracy Hurley Griffin; and his beloved brother, Mr. Brandon Devonte Truitt.

He is also survived by his uncles and aunts: Mr. Al J. (Sherrye) Hurley of Albany, Georgia; Mr. Kenneth Hurley, Mr. Sam (McKeitha) Hurley, Mr. John (Carolyn) Hurley, Mr. James Griffin, Mrs. Teresa (James) Mann, and Ms. Felicia Hurley, all of Americus, Georgia; and Mr. Clifton (Stephanie L.) Truitt, Mrs. Olivia (Chuck) Williams, and Ms. Stephanie D. Truitt, all of Dothan, Alabama.

Brenton also leaves his cherished god-sisters and god-brothers: Sha'Neal Robertson, Khalin Harvey, Quanesha Jones, Heavenly Collier, Cortez Robertson, Khalil Jackson, Joshua Brown, and Napoleon Harris; his beloved goddaughter, Khari Jade Walton; a host of great-uncles, great-aunts, cousins, and many friends; and special friends, Chance Davis, Brentavious Glanton, and Dwight Harris, Jr., who will forever treasure the memories they shared with him.

Though his time on earth was brief, Brenton's life was filled with purpose, love, and promise. His compassion for children, commitment to education, dedication to his faith, and love for his family and fraternity brothers created a legacy that will continue to inspire all who were blessed to know him. His smile, laughter, and unwavering spirit will forever remain in the hearts of those who loved him.
