

Mr. Gregory Montrel Angry, affectionately known as "Greg" or "GA," was born on January 6, 1981, in Americus, Georgia, to Mr. Clyde Angry and the late Mrs. Rosa Lee Angry. He peacefully departed this life on May 28, 2026, at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital.

Greg received his education in the Sumter County School System. Committed to personal growth and lifelong learning, he later pursued higher education and earned an Associate of Arts Degree in Communication from the University of Phoenix.

Greg was united in marriage to his devoted wife, Mrs. Carlene Angry, with whom he shared 15 years of marriage and 20 years of cherished companionship. He was known for his kind heart, loving personality, and warm spirit that touched the lives of all who knew him. Though often quiet and observant, Greg never hesitated to share his thoughts when he felt they mattered. He found joy in cooking, listening to music, dancing, and spending quality time with family and friends.

Left to cherish his precious memories are his devoted wife, Mrs. Carlene Angry of Albany, Georgia; his children: Adajah Angry of Kathleen, Georgia and Gregory Montrel Angry, Jr. of Americus, Georgia; and his father, Mr. Clyde Angry of Americus, Georgia.

He is also survived by his brothers: Antonio Bush of Pensacola, Florida and Tyrone Angry of Americus, Georgia; his sister, Anita (Cornelius) Clark of Powder Springs, Georgia; his mother-in-law, Ms. Emma Jean Evans of Plains, Georgia; his sister-in-law, Kimberly Pickett of Americus, Georgia; and his brothers-in-law: Raymond (Sheena) Pickett of Americus, Georgia, Kevin Copeland of Savannah, Georgia and Thomas Copeland of Plains, Georgia.

Greg leaves behind four beloved grandchildren: Hailey Reynolds, Chance Pottinger, Harleigh Reynolds, and Halo Reynolds, all of Kathleen, Georgia.

He is further survived by his aunts: Eva Williams, Linda Williams, Bernice Williams, and Monteen Williams, all of Americus, Georgia; Annie Pearsey of Fort Myers, Florida; and Gloria Dean Green of Lexington, Mississippi; his uncles: Emmett Angry and Willie (Carol) Williams, Jr., both of Americus, Georgia, also survive.

His memory will continue to live on through his nieces and nephews: Antravian McGee, Quashana Angry, Tyrone Angry, Jr., Rekevia Mathis, and Kevon Angry, as well as a host of other relatives and friends. Among those who held a special place in his heart were his close friends, Erik Reese, Calvin Laster, and Arthur Lockett.

Greg's warmth, kindness, and genuine care for others will forever remain in the hearts of those who loved him. His life was a blessing, his memory a treasure, and his love a gift that will never be forgotten.
