

Mrs. Daisy Cannon Kitchen was born in Lumpkin, Stewart County, Georgia on June 9, 1940, to the parentage of the late Mr. Booker T. Cannon and the late Mrs. Carrie Buford Cannon Maddox. She received her education in the public schools of Stewart County. In 1960, she was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Mr. James Kitchen and in 1961, they moved to Americus, Georgia. For a while she was employed as a housekeeper for various families. In 1963, she was employed by Manhattan Shirt Company until 1976. In 1977, she worked as a cook under a French Cuisine Chef at the Rib & Loin until 1984. In 1985, she returned to Manhattan Shirt Company until it closed in 1996. In December of 1996, she was employed at the Windsor Hotel as a pantry and breakfast cook until she retired in 2002.

She accepted Christ at the age of 23. She joined the Healing Temple Church in 1963 under Elder Williams of Macon, Georgia. There she served as an Usher and on the Missionary Board. She was also the Sunday School Secretary and Director of the Youth Department; Bishop P. J. Welch was the Overseer. In 1996, she left the Healing Temple Church but stayed with GOD and started out on her Missionary work for the Lord praying and healing the sick on various occasions.

She is preceded in death by five brothers: Tommy, Johnny, Booker T., Jr, Sammy, and Willie Cannon.

She was blessed with and leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Mr. Michael R. Kitchens and Mr. Lee J. Kitchens, both of Americus, GA; two sisters, Mrs. Emma (William) Brown and Ms. Shirley Slaughter, all of Lumpkin, GA; one brother, Mr. Marvin Cannon of Lumpkin, GA; three grandchildren: JyQuarious Leverette, Adasia Kitchens and Adericka Kitchens, all of Americus, GA; two sisters-in-law, Ms. Annie Cannon, Lumpkin, GA and Ms. Mary Cannon of Americus, GA; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends also survive.
