

JOSEPHINE PEARL BERKELEY was born in New York City on November 29, 1936. She was the second daughter of the late Mr. Robert Berkeley and the late Mrs. Violet Scott Berkeley. Pearl as she was commonly known, graduated from the Julia Richmond High School in New York. She was employed as a secretary for the Brooklyn Navy Yard and for Bloomingdale's Department Store until she retired.

In November 1960, she dedicated her life to Jehovah God and served as a fulltime minister for many years. After the death of her mother and older sister, she located to Georgia in 2002. Despite failing health, Pearl continued to teach people about the God she truly loved—Jehovah.

She is preceded in death by her sister, May Berkeley and her sister-in-law, Georgia Berkeley.
