

HE MAKETH NO MISTAKE

My Father's way may twist and turn.
My heart may throb and ache,
but in my soul, I am glad to know,
HE MAKETH NO MISTAKE.
My cherished plans may go astray.
My hopes may fade away,
but still, I trust my Lord to lead,
for He doth know the way.
Though night be dark and it may seem that the day will never break,
but I'll pin my faith, my all on Him.
HE MAKETH NO MISTAKE.
There's so much now I cannot see.
My eyesight is far too dim,
but come what may, I'll simply trust
and leave it all to Him.
For by and by the mist lifts
and plain it all He'll make through all the way.
HE MAKETH NO MISTAKE.

Words are inadequate to express the humbleness and gratefulness we feel toward all friends who have consoled us during our bereavement. Your prayers, love, presence and service has sustained us. Your cards, telegrams, flowers and gifts of food were warmly appreciated. We saw all of these as God's love expressed through you. Whatever you did console our hearts, the members of our entire family THANK YOU very much. May God bless each of you.

Celebrating THE LIFE & MEMORY

Ms. Tedajah Jonteya Wright was born in Americus, Sumter County, Georgia on September 17, 2003, to the parents of Mr. Johnathan Wright and Ms. Tamiko King. She received her education in the public schools of Cobb County and was a graduate in the Class of 2022. She was a student at Georgia Southwestern State University.

Tedajah is preceded in death by her grandfathers: Mr. Joe Jenkins, Mr. Emmett Battle, Mr. Henry King and her uncle, Mr. Adrain L. Wright.

She was 22 years old, yet her heart and spirit were far bigger than her age. A devoted single mother, she poured her strength, patience, and unconditional love into her child every single day. Motherhood did not slow her down; it sharpened her purpose. While balancing college and the demands of life, she also guided her siblings and cousins to remain humble and respectful, loving and protecting them as if they were her own. Responsibility never intimidated her; she carried it with quiet grace.

What set her apart most was her heart. She had a rare ability to make people feel seen, valued, and safe. Her love was never selective; it was freely given. Whether family, friends, or strangers, being in her presence meant feeling warmth, kindness, and genuine care.

Though her time was short, her impact was profound and lasting. She leaves behind a legacy of selflessness, resilience, love, and a powerful reminder that even in a brief life, you can change the world simply by loving people well.

She leaves cherished memories to her son, Master Prince Amir Walker, Americus, GA; her mother, Ms. Tamiko King; her father, Mr. Johnathan Wright; a sister, Ms. Kamiah Haugabook; a brother, Mr. Travaris Williams, Jr.; her grandparents: Mr. Willie and Jannie Jones, Ms. Dianne King, and Ms. Ethel Wright; her uncle and aunts: Mr. Willie (Andreka) Jones, Mrs. Valerie (John) Wilson, Ms. Toshida King, Ms. Keyanna Nunn, Ms. Alicia Wright and Ms. Amy (Jerome) Williams, Jr.; a niece, Na'riaha Williams; a nephew, Aiden Johnson; her cousins: Laila, Kyla, Jayla, Tedarion "TJ", Makenzee, Samonne, Mirah, Jamaya, Kabron, Ashton, Lamia, India, Jaden, Jalen and J'Kyn also survives.
