Mr. Alonza Davis was born on September 25, 1962, in Plains, Sumter County, Georgia, to the parentage of the late Mr. Alvin Davis and the late Mrs. Ida Bell Angrish Davis. At an early age, he joined Lebanon Baptist Church. He received his education in the public schools of Sumter County and later earned his General Educational Development (GED) diploma. Alonza, affectionately known as "DJ Quick," was employed as a forklift driver with Agrium US Inc., formerly known as Rainbow Fertilizer.

Alonza found great joy in being surrounded by family and friends. He had a love for music, with Michael Jackson being his favorite artist. A selfless man with a generous heart, Alonza welcomed everyone with open arms. His warm spirit and kind nature will be fondly remembered by those who knew and loved him.

He leaves to cherish his memory one son, Mr. Dantavious Sims, Albany, GA; three daughters: Ms. Ashley Davis and Mrs. Charity (Lionel) Foster, both of Americus, GA, and Ms. Shaundreka Owens, Parrott, GA; one brother, Mr. Anthony Davis, Plains, GA; three sisters: Ms. Barbara Yancie and Mrs. Patricia (Charlie) Wright, both of Americus, GA, and Mrs. Virginia (Jessie) Tullis, Plains, GA; six grandchildren: Demarrious Grier, D'Chavious Grier, Christian Lockett, Ayden Ponder, Madelyn Ponder, and Jahlia Gardner; two great-grandchildren: A'Lonni Grier and A'Marê Grier; his longtime companion, Ms. Alice McGrady, Americus, GA; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends, including Clinton Jackson, Nelson Sims, Harry Carson, Annie Lora Kitchen, and Stanley White.
