

DOBBS WIGGINS, SR. born on April 1, 1947, in Americus, Georgia, passed away on October 5, 2024, at Phoebe Sumter Hospital in his hometown, at the age of 77.

A trailblazer from a young age, Dobbs was one of four students to integrate Americus High School in 1964, marking a pivotal moment in the town's history. He went on to graduate from Georgia State University and later, became an accomplished business owner, running a successful construction project company in Northern Virginia for over 25 years. Despite his many professional achievements, Dobbs never lost his passion for gardening, where he found peace and joy in nature.

Dobbs is survived by his loving wife, Jackie Wiggins, of Americus, GA; his children: Dobbs Wiggins, Jr. of Manassas, VA and Erin Wiggins of Arlington, VA; and his siblings: Theresa Shields of Seattle, WA and Graham Wiggins of Roswell, GA.

Known for his large personality and dedication to doing what was right, Dobbs was a well-recognized figure in Americus, where he was known for his determination and character. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.
